

Co-funded by
the European Union

Workshop 2: Men who were examples of legality sacrificing their lives – Kahoot about what students have learned about Judges Falcone and Borsellino and Padre Pini Puglisi

Kahoot Quiz: Men Who Were Examples of Legality

1. Who were Giovanni Falcone and Paolo Borsellino?

- A) Famous football players
 - B) Italian judges fighting against the Mafia ☒
 - C) Politicians in the Italian Parliament
 - D) Journalists from Palermo
-

2. In which Italian city did Falcone and Borsellino work most of their lives?

- A) Rome
 - B) Palermo ☒
 - C) Milan
 - D) Naples
-

3. What was the main goal of Falcone and Borsellino's work?

- A) To write laws for the European Union
 - B) To fight against the Mafia and organized crime ☒
 - C) To open new universities in Sicily
 - D) To become politicians
-

4. What was the "Maxi Trial" (1986–1992)?

- A) A famous Italian TV show
 - B) A football championship
 - C) The biggest trial against the Sicilian Mafia ☒
 - D) A student protest
-

5. How did Giovanni Falcone die?

- A) In a plane crash
 - B) He was killed in a car bombing on the highway near Capaci ☒
 - C) He died of natural causes
 - D) He disappeared mysteriously
-

6. What happened to Paolo Borsellino two months after Falcone's death?

- A) He became Minister of Justice
 - B) He left Sicily
 - C) He was killed in another bombing in Via D'Amelio, Palermo ☒
 - D) He started teaching law at a university
-

7. Who was Padre (Father) Pino Puglisi?

- A) A police officer
 - B) A Catholic priest who worked with young people in Palermo ☒
 - C) A famous singer
 - D) A journalist
-

8. What was Father Puglisi's mission in his neighborhood, Brancaccio?

- A) To build a new church
 - B) To help poor families and keep children away from the Mafia ☒
 - C) To organize political campaigns
 - D) To open a museum
-

9. What did Father Puglisi say when the Mafia killers came to kill him?

- A) "You don't know what you are doing." ☒
 - B) "I will fight you!"
 - C) "Call the police!"
 - D) "Please don't do this."
-

10. What lesson do we learn from Falcone, Borsellino, and Puglisi?

- A) That fighting for justice can be dangerous but necessary ☒
 - B) That the Mafia always wins
 - C) That it is better to stay silent
 - D) That democracy is only for politicians
-

11. Which date is celebrated in Italy to remember Falcone and Borsellino?

- A) 23 May – “Day of Legality” ☒
 - B) 25 April – Liberation Day
 - C) 2 June – Republic Day
 - D) 15 August – Assumption Day
-

12. What is the meaning of the word legality in this context?

- A) Following the law and promoting justice ☒
 - B) Doing what you want
 - C) Obeying only your family
 - D) Making new rules for school
-

13. What symbol is often associated with Falcone and Borsellino?

- A) A red rose
 - B) Two trees growing together in Palermo ☒ (the “Tree of Memory”)
 - C) A flag
 - D) A book
-

14. What connects all three men?

- A) They were from the same village
 - B) They fought for justice and paid with their lives ☒
 - C) They worked in the same school
 - D) They were musicians
-

15. What message would they give to young people today?

- A) “Don’t care about others.”
 - B) “Believe in legality and never give up fighting injustice.” ☒
 - C) “Stay away from problems.”
 - D) “Money is the most important thing.”
-